NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK BOOKMARK CONTEST BEGINS MARCH 1
Find Your Place At the Library is this year's theme for National Library Week. Tell us how you found YOUR place at the Library through pictures using crayons, pencils or markers to create an original bookmark to tell your own story about our library. Make it wonderful and colorful!
 Artists from preschool to adult are invited to participate.
 Entry forms will be available at the Library beginning Sunday, March 1. All entries are due by Saturday, March 28. Winners will be announced during National Library Week, April 19 to 25.

The Whistling Season Adult Book Discussion

Tuesday, March 17, 6:00 pm
"Can't cook but doesn't bite." So begins the newspaper ad offering the services of an "A-1 housekeeper, sound morals, exceptional disposition" that draws the attention of widower Oliver Milliron in the fall of 1909. That unforgettable season deposits the ever-whistling Rose Llewellyn and her font-of-knowledge brother, Morris Morgan, in Marias Coulee along with a stampede of homesteaders drawn by the promise of the Big Ditch—a gargantuan irrigation project intended to make the Montana prairie bloom. When the schoolmarm runs off with an itinerant preacher, Morris is pressed into service, setting the stage for the "several kinds of education"—none of them of the textbook variety—Morris and Rose will bring to Oliver, his three sons, and the rambunctious students in the region's one-room schoolhouse.
