On Zoom and Facebook Live

The National WWI Museum and Memorial will partner with seven Northeast Kansas libraries for a moderated discussion on the 1918 flu pandemic. In 1918-1919, our nation weathered and survived a pandemic that claimed over 600,000 lives in the United States. What can we learn from this moment in U.S. history? How did our nation respond and react to a deadly virus then? The public libraries in Atchison, Basehor, Bonner Springs, Lansing, Leavenworth, Linwood, and Tonganoxie have joined together to bring you this fascinating and educational program. You can join us on either Zoom or Facebook. Please contact your local library for a link.
