NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK BOOKMARK CONTEST BEGINS MARCH 19

The theme for National Library Week (April 4-10, 2021), “Welcome to Your Library”, promotes the idea that libraries extend far beyond the four walls of a building – and that everyone is welcome to use their services. Tell us what makes our Library special to YOU through pictures using crayons, pencils or markers to create an original bookmark to tell your own story about our library. Make it wonderful and colorful! Artists from preschool to adult are invited to participate. Entry forms will be available at the Library beginning Friday, March 19. All entries are due by Friday, April 2. Staff members will vote and winners will be announced during National Library Week, April 4-10.

How to Be An Antiracist

Adult Book Discussion on Zoom

Tuesday, March 16, 6:00 pm
Author Ibram X. Kendi takes readers through a widening circle of antiracist ideas—from the most basic concepts to visionary possibilities—that will help readers see all forms of racism clearly, understand their poisonous consequences, and work to oppose them in our systems and in ourselves.
Kendi weaves an electrifying combination of ethics, history, law, and science with his own personal story of awakening to antiracism. This is an essential work for anyone who wants to go beyond the awareness of racism to the next step: contributing to the formation of a just and equitable society.

Coming in April...

National Library Week

April 4-10, 2021
It's National Library Week! This year's theme, "Welcome to Your Library", promotes the idea that libraries extend far beyond the four walls of a building – and that everyone is welcome to use their services.
We want to know why the Library matters to YOU and your family! Please send stories, pictures, or videos to Lesley at llard@bonnerlibrary.org, and we will share them throughout National Library Week. We'll also have Spirit Week with prizes too! More details to come on the April calendar.
